"Three voices, one sound: The kind of pitch-perfect unanimity of phrasing, tone, feeling and interpretation that distinguishes the finest chamber ensembles."

Detroit Free Press

Since coming together in 2003, the Berlin-based piano trio ATOS has been conquering the world's major concert series. Around the globe, pianist Thomas Hoppe, violinist Annette von Hehn and cellist Stefan Heinemeyer are hailed by audiences and perform to critical acclaim. Steinway Society – The Bay Area presents them in concert on Sunday, March 4 at 2:30 p.m. at Trianon Theater. An introduction to the music precedes the concert, and a meet-the-artists opportunity follows. Tickets are available at www.steinwaysociety.com

More information: Since coming together in 2003, the Berlin-based piano trio ATOS has been conquering the world's major concert series. Around the globe, pianist Thomas Hoppe, violinist Annette von Hehn, and cellist Stefan Heinemeyer are hailed by audiences and have met with critical acclaim.

The Trio has won the Kalichstein-Laredo-Robinson International Trio Award, the gold-standard prize for trios in the US, and prestigious recognition as

"New Generation Artists" by the BBC, along with prizes in London, Graz (Austria) and Melbourne, where alone in the history of that competition, they captured all available prizes. The Trio has concertized widely in the major European festivals and in world-famous venues in Europe and the U.S.

Known for its distinctively warm, dynamic, unified trio sound, the ATOS Trio pushes expression far beyond the familiar and expected. The group has recorded eight enthusiastically received CDs spanning classical and romantic repertoire (Beethoven, Brahms, Schubert, Schumann, Mendelssohn); music of Heinrich von Herzogenberg and Josef Suk; and, most recently, celebrating French, Russian and Czech composers (The French album, The Russian Album, The Czech Album).

"Atos has risen steadily through the ranks to become one of the elite piano trios before the public today. The Atos Trio's perfect harmony yields master pieces."
